5 Then Joseph had a dream. When he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. 6 He said to them, “Listen to this dream I had: 7 There we were, binding sheaves of grain in the field. Suddenly my sheaf stood up, and your sheaves gathered around it and bowed down to my sheaf.” [A]

8 “Are you really going to reign over us?” his brothers asked him. “Are you really going to rule us?” So they hated him even more because of his dream and what he had said.

9 Then he had another dream and told it to his brothers. “Look,” he said, “I had another dream, and this time the sun, moon, and eleven stars were bowing down to me.”

10 He told his father and brothers, and his father rebuked him. “What kind of dream is this that you have had?” he said. “Am I and your mother and your brothers really going to come and bow down to the ground before you?” 11 His brothers were jealous of him, [B] but his father kept the matter in mind. [C]

18 They saw him in the distance, and before he had reached them, they plotted to kill him.(A) 19 They said to one another, “Oh, look, here comes that dream expert![a] 20 So now, come on, let’s kill him and throw him into one of the pits.[b] We can say that a vicious animal ate him. Then we’ll see what becomes of his dreams!”

21 When Reuben heard this, he tried to save him from them.[c] He said, “Let’s not take his life.”(B) 22 Reuben also said to them, “Don’t shed blood. Throw him into this pit in the wilderness, but don’t lay a hand on him”—intending to rescue him from them and return him to his father.

23 When Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped off Joseph’s robe, the long-sleeved robe that he had on. 24 Then they took him and threw him into the pit. The pit was empty, without water.(C)

25 They sat down to eat a meal,(D) and when they looked up, there was a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead.(E) Their camels were carrying aromatic gum, balsam, and resin, going down to Egypt.(F)

26 Judah said to his brothers, “What do we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? 27 Come on, let’s sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay a hand on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh,” and his brothers agreed. 28 When Midianite(G) traders passed by, his brothers pulled Joseph out of the pit and sold him for twenty pieces of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took Joseph to Egypt.(H)

13 When she saw that he had left his garment with her and had run outside, 14 she called her household servants. “Look,” she said to them, “my husband brought a Hebrew man to make fools of us. He came to me so he could sleep with me, and I screamed as loud as I could. 15 When he heard me screaming for help,[a] he left his garment beside me and ran outside.”

16 She put Joseph’s garment beside her until his master came home. 17 Then she told him the same story: “The Hebrew slave you brought to us came to make a fool of me, 18 but when I screamed for help,[b] he left his garment beside me and ran outside.”

19 When his master heard the story his wife told him—“These are the things your slave did to me”—he was furious 20 and had him thrown into prison,(A) where the king’s prisoners were confined. So Joseph was there in prison.

21 But the Lord was with Joseph and extended kindness to him.(B) He granted him favor with the prison warden.(C) 22 The warden put all the prisoners who were in the prison under Joseph’s authority,[c] and he was responsible for everything that was done there. 23 The warden did not bother with anything under Joseph’s authority,[d] because the Lord was with him, and the Lord made everything that he did successful.(D)

14 Then Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and they quickly brought him from the dungeon.[a] (A) He shaved, changed his clothes, and went to Pharaoh. (B)

15 Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have had a dream, and no one can interpret it. But I have heard it said about you that you can hear a dream and interpret it.” (C)

16 “I am not able to,” (D) Joseph answered Pharaoh. “It is God who will give Pharaoh a favorable answer.” [b] (E)

46 Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Joseph left Pharaoh's presence and traveled throughout the land of Egypt.

45 Joseph could no longer keep his composure in front of all his attendants,[a] so he called out, “Send everyone away from me!” No one was with him when he revealed his identity to his brothers.(A) 2 But he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and also Pharaoh’s household heard it. 3 Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still living?” But they could not answer him because they were terrified in his presence.

4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, “Please, come near me,” and they came near. “I am Joseph, your brother,” he said, “the one you sold into Egypt.(B) 5 And now don’t be grieved or angry with yourselves for selling me here, because God sent me ahead of you to preserve life.(C) 6 For the famine has been in the land these two years, and there will be five more years without plowing or harvesting. 7 God sent me ahead of you to establish you as a remnant within the land and to keep you alive by a great deliverance.[b] 8 Therefore it was not you who sent me here, but God. He has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of his entire household, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

9 “Return quickly to my father and say to him, ‘This is what your son Joseph says: “God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me without delay. 10 You can settle in the land of Goshen(D) and be near me—you, your children, and your grandchildren, your flocks, your herds, and all you have. 11 There I will sustain you, for there will be five more years of famine. Otherwise, you, your household, and everything you have will become destitute.”’(E) 12 Look! Your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin can see that I’m[c] the one speaking to you. 13 Tell my father about all my glory in Egypt and about all you have seen. And bring my father here quickly.”(F)

14 Then Joseph threw his arms around his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin wept on his shoulder. 15 Joseph kissed each of his brothers as he wept,[d] and afterward his brothers talked with him.

20 You planned evil against me; God planned it for good to bring about the present result—the survival of many people. [A]

1 Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name;
proclaim his deeds among the peoples. (A) 2 Sing to him, sing praise to him;
tell about all his wondrous works! (B)
3 Boast in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice. (C) 4 Seek the LORD and his strength;
seek his face always. (D)
5 Remember the wondrous works he has done,
his wonders, and the judgments he has pronounced, [a] (E)
6 you offspring of Abraham his servant,
Jacob's descendants—his chosen ones. (F)

7 He is the LORD our God;
his judgments govern the whole earth. (G)
8 He remembers his covenant forever,
the promise he ordained
for a thousand generations (H)— 9 the covenant he made with Abraham,
swore [b] to Isaac, (I) 10 and confirmed to Jacob as a decree

and to Israel as a permanent covenant: (J) 11 “I will give the land of Canaan to you as your inherited portion.” (K)

12 When they were few in number,
very few indeed,
and resident aliens in Canaan, (L)
13 wandering from nation to nation
and from one kingdom to another, (M) 14 he allowed no one to oppress them;
he rebuked kings on their behalf: (N) 15 “Do not touch my anointed ones, (O)
or harm my prophets.” (P)

16 He called down famine against the land
and destroyed the entire food supply. (Q)
17 He had sent a man ahead of them—
Joseph, who was sold as a slave. (R)
18 They hurt his feet with shackles;
his neck was put in an iron collar. (S)
19 Until the time his prediction came true,
the word of the Lord tested him. (T)

20 The king sent for him and released him;
the ruler of peoples set him free. (U)
21 He made him master of his household,
ruler over all his possessions (V)— 22 binding [c] his officials at will
and instructing his elders. (W)

23 Then Israel went to Egypt;
Jacob lived as an alien in the land of Ham. [d] (X)
24 The LORD [e] made his people very fruitful;
he made them more numerous than their foes, (Y) 25 whose hearts he turned to hate his people and to deal deceptively with his servants. (Z) 26 He sent Moses his servant,
and Aaron, whom he had chosen. (AA)
27 They performed his miraculous signs among them
and wonders in the land of Ham. (AB) 28 He sent darkness, and it became dark—
for did they not defy his commands? (AC)
29 He turned their water into blood
and caused their fish to die. (AD) 30 Their land was overrun with frogs,

even in their royal chambers. (AE)

31 He spoke, and insects came (AF)—
gnats throughout their country. (AG)

32 He gave them hail for rain,
and lightning throughout their land. (AH)

33 He struck their vines and fig trees
and shattered the trees of their territory. (AI)

34 He spoke, and locusts came—young locusts without number.

35 They devoured all the vegetation in their land
and consumed the produce of their land. (AJ)

36 He struck all the firstborn in their land,
all their first progeny. (AK)

37 Then he brought Israel out with silver and gold,
and no one among his tribes stumbled. (AL)

38 Egypt was glad when they left,
for the dread of Israel [f] had fallen on them. (AM)

39 He spread a cloud as a covering and gave a fire to light up the night. (AN)

40 They asked, and he brought quail
and satisfied them with bread from heaven. (AO)

41 He opened a rock, and water gushed out;
it flowed like a stream in the desert. (AP) 42 For he remembered his holy promise to Abraham his servant. (AQ) 43 He brought his people out with rejoicing,
his chosen ones with shouts of joy. (AR)
44 He gave them the lands of the nations,
and they inherited
what other peoples had worked for. (AS)

45 All this happened
so that they might keep his statutes and obey his instructions. (AT) Hallelujah!

14 Then[A] one of the Twelve, the man called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests[B] 15 and said, “What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?” So they weighed out thirty pieces of silver for him.[C] 16 And from that time he started looking for a good opportunity to betray him.

2 After tying him up, they led him away and handed him over to Pilate,[a] the governor.(A)

4 and was appointed to be the powerful (A) Son of God (B) according to the Spirit of holiness [a] by the resurrection of the dead.

8 he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death—
even to death on a cross. [A] 9 For this reason God highly exalted him [B]
and gave him the name
that is above every name,
10 so that at the name of Jesus
every knee will bow [C]—
in heaven [D] and on earth
and under the earth [E]— 11 and every tongue [F] will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory [G] of God the Father.
